

Glassy-Winged Sharpshooter Project
Department of Pesticide Regulation
830 K Street
Sacramento, CA 95814

Sacramento County

Trip Date:

August 2-5, 2000

Sampling Site:

Mobil Country Club
Rancho Cordova, CA

Field Staff:

Pam Wofford, Roger Sava, Lue Yang
Randy Segawa, Environmental Hazards Assessment Program, Department of Pesticide Regulation

Purpose: To monitor for residues of carbaryl used in glassy-winged sharpshooter control project.

The following samples were taken

- Tank samples
- Air samples at four intervals
at two sites
- Dislodgeable foliage residue
samples (2 sites)
- Creek water samples (2 sites)
- Water samples at Coloma
Treatment Plant
- Post-spray swimming pool
water sample
- Vegetable samples will be taken at preharvest interval.

Applicators spray oleander bushes

Traping of vehicles and other sensitive areas next to shrubbery targeted for spraying

Spray truck

Pam Wofford collects air samples at sprayed home.

Roger Sava takes creek water samples